About Iffezheim:

Iffezheim, home to over 5,000 residents, lies on the eastern bank of the Rhine in the Upper Rhine Plain, in the district of Rastatt. The town is internationally recognized for its horse racing events, held three times a year at one of Europe's most beautiful racetracks.

Visitors can explore the impressive Rhine dam, home to Europe's largest fish pass, as well as nature reserves in the Rhine wetlands. The region is famous for asparagus and strawberry farming, a strong educational system, outstanding infrastructure, and an active community life.

The town's motto: "Iffezheim – Always in the Race" More details: www.iffezheim.de

UNESCO Heritage
Baden-Baden (10 km):

Discover the smallest cosmopolitan city at the foot of the Black Forest, filled with numerous attractions and sights. Whether it's the glitz and glamour of the casino, the historic grandeur of the Trinkhalle, or the light-filled architecture of the Museum Frieder Burda along Lichtentaler Allee, Baden-Baden offers unforgettable moments. Explore this UNESCO World Heritage site and enjoy its most beautiful locations.

Baroque City of Rastatt:

Located in the heart of Baden, Rastatt has much to offer for both locals and visitors. With its Residenzschloss in the city center and the Favorite Palace in Rastatt-Förch, it is a true Baroque gem. The city's green spaces, the Murg River winding through it, and the surrounding city forest provide perfect spots for relaxation and recreation. Additionally, Rastatt is just a few kilometers from the Rhine and its floodplain forests. Under the theme "Rastatt Naturally!", the city will host the 2036 State Garden Show.
